

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Tim Shireman is an Energy Office Program Manager and serves as team lead for Rebuild Michigan Energy Services. Tim provides information and outreach to RMES customers and technical consultants. He's served the MI Department of Labor and Economic Growth, Energy Office for 26 years. His major areas of responsibility include schools, hospitals, local government buildings and alternative fuel vehicles.

Brandy Minikey is the Energy Office Staff Engineer and is a Rebuild Michigan Energy Services team member. Brandy provides technical assistance to customers, conducts energy audits and assists with other Energy Office programs. She joined the Energy Office in 2002.

Kevin Cook, owner of G-Energy Services, serves as an Energy Office contractor and Rebuild Michigan Energy Services team member. He has worked in the energy management field for more than 20 years and has conducted more than 4000 energy audits and 1000 infrared inspections. Kevin is a Certified Lighting Efficiency Professional (Association of Energy Engineers) and a Certified Thermographer (Infraspection Institute). He holds a BS degree in Building Construction Management from Michigan State University.

John Anderson – has worked in energy management for over 20 years, conducting energy audits in commercial, industrial and institutional facilities throughout the Great Lakes region and engineering and selling energy efficient lighting systems for electrical contractors and distributors. He is a Certified Lighting Efficiency Professional (Association of Energy Engineers). John is a 1979 graduate of the University of Michigan with a Bachelor's Degree in Economics. He is in his third year as an Energy Office contractor in the Rebuild Michigan Energy Services program.

Other Rebuild MI Energy Services Staff & Team Members Present

Student Assistant – Student Assistant for the Rebuild Michigan Program will be hired in Late January 2006.

Thomas Krupiarz – Energy Office Program Manager for 25 years, federal and state facilities energy programs manager, and RMES team member.

Jan Patrick – Energy Office Supervisor and the Rebuild America/Rebuild Michigan Program Manager.

Alice Wood – Administrative Assistant for the Energy Office

